

Look at that bird!
What is it?

Tweet, tweet!

It's a robin.

COUNT & THINK

How many trees do you see? Do only birds live in trees?

Art

Science

The Remarkable Robin

They also lay special blue eggs. This unique color protects the eggs from the hot sun!

Robins live in Europe and North America. They have about 2,900 feathers and are famous for their beautiful singing.